Welcome visitors! We are glad you are here! If you have any questions about our church, our ministries, Mass intentions, etc., please talk with the greeters and they can direct you.

Dear parishioners and guests,

A parishioner recently asked me a question pertaining to the Church's belief in the perpetual virginity of Mary. It's a question that comes up often in discussions between Catholics and Protestants. Since we have just celebrated the Solemnity of Mary, the Holy Mother of God, I thought I might use this week's column to explain the question and provide one way of answering it.

The question is asked in light of the verse from Matthew's Gospel that reads, "He [Joseph] had no relations with her [Mary] until she bore a son, and he named him Jesus" (1:25). The question leveled at Catholics is, "How can you believe that Mary was a virgin forever when the Bible clearly states the Joseph had relations with her after Jesus was born?"

I begin my response by pointing out that the verse does not state that Joseph ever had relations with Mary. It states that from the time he took her into his home until the time Jesus was born, they had no marital relations. It doesn't say anything about what happened after that.

Very often, we use the word "until" in such a way that it implies that something changes after a certain point. For example, if I said, "I fasted until 11:00," you might assume that after 11:00, I stopped fasting and had something to eat. Or if I said, "I was at the office until 5:00," you might think that I went home at 5:00.

However, "until" does not always imply a change. If I said, "I intend to serve as a priest until I'm old and gray," you would be incorrect to think that once I'm old and gray I won't serve as a priest anymore. Or – and this is my favorite example – in 2 Samuel 6:23, we read, "Saul's daughter Michal was childless until the day she died." Do you suppose that after she died, she began to have children?

Thus, to say that Joseph had no relations with Mary until she bore a son does not at all imply that they had relations after Jesus' birth. I would not say that this verse (or any other) is absolute proof of Mary's perpetual virginity, but I would definitely say that the verse cannot be used to disprove it.

Our belief in Mary's perpetual virginity is drawn from a few verses of Scripture but chiefly from the living Tradition of the Church, which authoritatively defined the dogma in the year 553 at the Second Council of Constantinople.

REQUIESCAT IN PACE

Please pray for the repose of the soul of Diane Hess, and the consolation of her family. Diane was a long-time parishioner who had moved to Missouri to live with her daughter in recent years. Many knew her as the "Hat Lady." Her Funeral was held on January 9 in Missouri. A Memorial Mass will be celebrated in Colville this summer.

+Eternal rest grant unto her, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon her.+

Many thanks to those who signed up to have their portrait taken for our new parish directory.

Men's Catholic Study

Group: Beginning

Tuesday, January 13, the Men's Catholic Study Group is adopting a new format. In place of monthly meetings, the group will gather every Tuesday for 10 weeks. The meetings begin with a meal and fellowship at 6:15 p.m. and conclude by 7:45 p.m. The study is held in the Immaculate Conception parish hall. Any man can come to the meeting. Invite a friend and take the opportunity to grow in your role as a leader. For our first 10-week series, our program is "The Second Greatest Story Ever Told," with Fr. Michael Gaitley, MIC.

Our prayer teams at ICP will be available to pray with anyone wanting to take advantage of this opportunity. Teams will generally be available after Masses on the first and third Saturday/Sunday of the month at ICP.

Knights breakfast rescheduled!

After the 9:00 a.m. Sunday Mass, January 18, the Knights of Columbus will be serving a delicious breakfast in the ICP parish hall. Your donations help the Knights carry out their charitable works in the community.

Because of the unavailability of the parish hall due to the photo directory project, January's wine and cheese social will be in the parish hall on January 17 – instead of January 10 – after the 4:00 p.m. Mass at Immaculate Conception. Please come and visit with other parishioners and enjoy a delicious snack and a glass of wine!

Pregnancy & Parenting Support

The PREPARES ministry hosts a monthly diaper distribution on the third Saturday of every month, from 11:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in the parish hall. The next distribution will take place on January 17. Any family in need of diapers is welcome to come and pick up 25 diapers per child per month and one packet of baby wipes per family per month. For more info contact the parish office, or Pat Taylor. Thank you for your prayers and support!

If you would like to provide a meal for the Youth Group this winter/spring, please sign up in the vestibule at ICP!
