The Pastor's Corner

Dear friends,

It's hard to believe that when we first began the journey of Advent, Christmas seemed so far away. Yet here we are—already at the Fourth Sunday of Advent, with Christmas now within arm's reach. I hope and pray you have received all the graces of Advent your soul needed, and that you find yourself prepared for the magnificent celebration to come.

I look forward to joining you for one of our three Christmas Masses. We will have two Masses on Christmas Eve—one at 4:00 PM and one at 6:00 PM—and one Mass on Christmas Day at 10:00 AM. Together we will welcome the birth of our Lord Jesus, who is the true joy of this season.

The season of Christmas has a special way of bringing out the child in each of us. For those blessed to be around children or grandchildren, you will no doubt see the excitement sparkling in their faces and the twinkle in their eyes as they open their Christmas gifts. For us adults, perhaps our greatest joy is found in quietly observing the little ones, watching their happiness and delight as they unwrap their presents and embrace the magic of Christmas morning.

In much the same way, God looks upon each of us as His beloved children. He takes great joy and delight in us—His sons and daughters—just as we delight in our own children and grandchildren. As we celebrate this holy season, may we always remember that we are cherished by our Heavenly Father, who sent His Son to be with us and to fill our hearts with peace, hope, and love.

With prayers and wishing you the Lord's blessings,

Fr. Vic
