THE BAPTISM OF THE LORD

Pastor's Corner —My brothers and sisters in Christ,
May the Lord continue to bless our families and our parish community!

Today we conclude the Christmas season with the beautiful Feast of the Baptism of the Lord. At the waters of the Jordan, something extraordinary takes place: Jesus, the beloved Son of the Father, steps into the river not because He needs purification, but to stand in solidarity with us. In this humble act, He sanctifies the waters and reveals the deep meaning of our own baptism.

The Gospel tells us that as Jesus is baptized, the heavens open, the Spirit descends like a dove, and the voice of the Father proclaims: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased." This moment is a powerful revelation of who Jesus is, but it is also a revelation of who we are. Through baptism, each of us has heard these same words spoken over our lives: You are my beloved son; you are my beloved daughter. Our identity is not rooted in what we do or fail to do, but in God's unconditional love.

The prophet Isaiah speaks of the servant chosen by God, upon whom the Spirit rests—a servant who brings justice, healing, and hope without breaking the bruised reed or quenching the smoldering wick. This is the mission Jesus embraces at His baptism, and it becomes our mission as well. Baptism is not simply a ritual from the past; it is a lifelong call to live as people of compassion, mercy, and courage in a wounded world.

Saint Peter reminds us in the Acts of the Apostles that God shows no partiality. The grace revealed in Christ is offered to all. When we live our baptism faithfully, we become witnesses to that truth. Our words, our choices, and our love can open the heavens for others and help them discover the presence of God in their own lives.

As members of the communities of St. Joseph and St. Anthony, this feast invites us to remember our baptismal promises. Do we renounce sin and all that diminishes life? Do we trust in the Father, follow the Son, and allow the Spirit to guide us? Each day offers us a new opportunity to answer "yes." May this feast renew our hearts and strengthen our resolve to live as beloved children of God. Empowered by the Holy Spirit, let us go forth to bring Christ's light, justice, and peace to all we meet.

May God bless our Parish! May the Lord continue to provide us with deeper faith and love in the Eucharist!

God bless you!

Fr. Gus Ruiz
