The Organ Music in Today's Liturgy

Today's prelude music features two pieces: Prelude sur l'Introit de l'Épiphanie by Maurice Duruflé (1902-1986), and the fourth movement of Epiphania Domini, from L'Orgue Mystique, by Charles Tournemire (1870-1939). These two compositions share kinship in both inspiration and outlook. Both are based upon Gregorian chants from the liturgy for Epiphany, and Duruflé was a student of Tournemire. The postlude is an evocative setting of the famous Epiphany carol, "We Three Kings:" Three Kings of Orient was written by organist, university professor, and prolific composer, Janet Linker (b. 1938). If you would like more information, please ask Joseph Schubert, the organist.

The Feast of the Epiphany

Tuesday, January 6

Also known as Three Kings' Day - is a Christian feast day which is a special date for many Christians as it's when people celebrate how a star led the Magi - also known as the three kings or the Wise Men - to visit the baby Jesus after he had been born.

The 12 days symbolizes the time it took them to travel to baby Jesus and bring him gifts.
