To inspire in each other a longing for holiness, conversion, and an openness to Jesus' call: "Follow Me;" by giving ourselves entirely to Christ through Mary, our Mother, in prayer, the Divine Liturgy, the Eucharist, and His Mercy in the Sacraments.

"The Baptism of our Lord"

Today the Church celebrates the Solemnity of the Baptism of our Lord, who enters into the waters of the Jordan River to be baptized by John, the prophet called by God to "prepare the way of the Lord". Jesus chooses to be baptized not for himself but for us and in doing so reveals the fruit of God's love is service. His baptism sets the tone for Jesus' public ministry as the One "who came to serve and not be served" which culminates in His sacrificial and salvific death on the Cross where He gives up His life for us in the very Love of God.

As we honor our Lord in the solemn recognition of His Baptism at Mass today, He invites us to respond to the grace of our own Baptism where we are anointed to become full partakers and participants in the Love of Christ to live our lives not for ourselves but for God. As Jesus calls us to Himself through His Baptism and ours, we are offered the gift of being His disciples who strive to live lives of loving service to God and our neighbor in accordance with our particular vocation and state of life.

As the Christmas season ends today, I pray we as a community of faith will commit ourselves to Jesus Christ more fully each day and in doing so find our deepest joy and happiness in Him who died and rose for us that we might live with and for God both now in this life and eternally in Heaven.

God bless you.

Fr. David
